A NOTE FROM
FR. DANIEL . . .

Through the years we all might have experienced some hurt or some anger, even to the point of making some leave our communities. Others, even being hurt, decided to stay. Some of those who stayed were hurt by seeing the decreasing numbers and having to do more and more to keep things going. No matter in what group you fall—or if you do not fall into any of them—if there is any hurt or anger, God wants to embrace you in mercy and help you heal so we can all start walking in hope.

To facilitate this experience of healing, we are holding an Evening of Healing and Hope, with three opportunities to attend. I strongly encourage you to come to one of them and to please invite others to come, especially those who have left. Renewing our communities has to be a team effort and this is the first step.

An evening of Healing & Hope

6:00 – 7:30 pm

November 6 at Holy Cross
November 7 at Saint Anthony
November 9 at All Saints

There are wounds in our past. Maybe we have been hurt by the words or the absence of those in leadership, maybe we have felt neglected, maybe the cluster process or the Mass schedule changes in the past left some hurt and anger. God wants to embrace us in mercy and help us heal.

Sister Joan Sobala, SSJ, will come to lead us in a beautiful evening of healing and hope. Please come home, please invite others to come home and allow God's embrace to offer them some peace.

Grateful for your collaboration in bringing healing and new life to our communities, A.M.D.G,

Fr. Daniel

YEAR OF THE EUCHARIST

In his Pastoral Letter, Bishop Matano says: The poor must be among us as we seek to assist them, since spiritual nourishment is also essential to their lives. In his Apostolic Exhortation, Evangelii Gaudium, Pope Francis writes: “Since this Exhortation is addressed to members of the Catholic Church, I want to say, with regret, that the worst discrimination which the poor suffer is the lack of spiritual care. The great majority of the poor have a special openness to the faith; they need God and we must not fail to offer them His friendship, His blessing, His word, the celebration of the Sacraments and a journey of growth and maturity in the faith. Our preferential option for the poor must mainly translate into a privileged and preferential religious care.” (Evangelii Gaudium, no. 200). Our many and very beneficial outreach ministries to the poor must include accompanying them over the thresholds of our churches. Intimately connected with our charitable outreach, we must remember that “Every liturgical celebration, because it is an action of Christ the Priest and of His Body, which is the Church, is a sacred action surpassing all others. No other action of the church can equal the efficacy by the same title or to the same degree.” (Sacrosanctum Concilium, no. 7).

This helps us understand that all those on the margins, on the peripheries of our communities, the poor, the excluded, those who have been hurt, those who have left, should be invited back and assisted in the process. I ask that you all pray about possible people who you might want to invite back and to assist in that process and that you do it. Let us bring all to the joy of the encounter with Christ in the Most Holy Eucharist!

STEWARDSHIP MOMENTS

There is no question that Jesus had a way with words. The Word of the Lord is filled with what we are very familiar with in our society — sound bites if you will, which convey so much meaning. The last verses of today's Gospel from St. Matthew contain one of those short statements which carry so much more meaning. Jesus says, "The greatest among you must be your servant. Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." In those two sentences are found the key to a stewardship way of life, which revolve around service and humility. There is no question that these are powerful words. They reveal to us all that we need to understand to be a true disciple of Christ. In his letter to the Philippians St. Paul wrote, "Though He was in the form of God, He did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but EMPTIED HIMSELF, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, HE HUM-BLED HIMSELF by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross." (Phil. 2:5-8). True humility will be ultimately exalted by God. Our society teaches us to strive to reach the top, but Jesus is reminding us that we need to regard others as more important than we are. We have two choices in life perhaps, to be self exalters, or to be God-exalted. Is there any doubt as to what we as Christians should pursue?

2017-18 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

Hopefully everyone has received the Catholic Ministries Appeal mailing by this time and has had a chance to review the materials. Extra copies of the brochure are available in church. The theme for this year's campaign is "Glorifying the Lord by Our Lives." The CMA affords each of us an opportunity to support the larger Church so that it can meet real needs throughout the Diocese. Our support enables the Church to be responsive and caring. Please be generous in your response. Every gift is needed and important! If it is easier, you can make your gift at www.dor.org — you can also pay your pledge off in six installments. Pledge forms, which can be put in the collection or mailed directly to the Diocese, are available in the back of the church. Please pray for the success of our efforts.

PRE-ADVENT / ADVENT SERIES ON:

"THE THREE COMINGS OF CHRIST"

Join Fr. Daniel for three evenings of restful prayer. There will be a 15 minute talk and a 25 minute guided prayer exercise. This will be a wonderful break in a busy season and a beautiful way to come closer to God. Each talk/prayer functions independently, so if you can only attend one, that is ok. The series of three also ties together as a whole and you can either attend the Saturday Series, the Pre-Advent Series (Nov. 8, 15, 22), the Advent Series (Nov. 29, Dec. 13, Dec. 20), or the three that will happen at your parish; and in each case, you will get the whole three-night series.

YOUTH

HOLY CROSS YOUTH GROUP — FOOD DRIVE

Our Youth Group, once again this year, is asking for your help to provide a wonderful Thanksgiving meal to families in our community. We are teaming up with Dryden Schools, the Salvation Army, the William George Agency, and the youth groups at Dryden Methodist and Presbyterian churches to sponsor our Kitchen Cupboard's annual Thanksgiving Food Drive. We encourage families to take a brown bag as you leave church and return it filled with non-perishable foods by November 12. Those wishing to make a monetary donation may do so by giving a check to any member of the youth group (payable to the Dryden Kitchen Cupboard). Working together, we create wonderful communities and provide a nice Thanksgiving for everyone.

ST. ANTHONY YOUTH GROUP — FOOD DRIVE

The St. Anthony's Jr. High Youth Group is collecting food to provide Thanksgiving Dinners for three local, disadvantaged families. The Youth Group will be handing brown bags out today after Mass, each labeled with different foods to be donated. Please return the filled bags by next weekend, Nov. 11/12. Thank you for your generosity.

RCIA

RCIA MEETING

The next RCIA meeting will be on Thursday, Nov. 16, at 7:00 pm at Holy Cross.

Some of you might have been wondering what the A.M.D.G. at the end of my bulletin articles means. Simply put, it means: Ad Maiorem Dei Gloriam which is Latin for: For the Greater/est Glory of God. Here is a great explanation of what this means by Rebeca Ruiz from www.ignatianspirituality.com:

To live Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam is a way of being that permeates every thought, every deed, every action and inaction—all is contemplated and weighed, all for the greater glory of God. To live Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam is to lay claim to a legacy of "other-ness" that sets us apart and puts us at ease with any culture or people, a completely integrated other-ness that seeks to make all things whole, that approaches the liminal without hesitation, Finds God in all things, finds the Good in all things, and seeks to proclaim His glory in all that we do. It is a heritage of service however, whenever, and wherever needed, of leadership in service to those impoverished in mind, body, and spirit. It is a call to respect the dignity of each human, the splendor of all creation, unencumbered by societal constructs. It is a complete inability to be unaware of injustice or impervious to inequality, a Spirit-driven determination to find a way to right the wrongs, to lift the downtrodden, to bind the wounds, to welcome the stranger, the nationless, the outcast, To see the humanity in all those discarded by economies and policies. To rise to this challenge—for the glory of God alone. To offer one's heart and one's hands, one's whole self, an offering, in desolation and in consolation. To give up even liberty for the sake of the love of the other. To be held to a higher standard, to see through a lens that sees the good and the possible in every impossible situation. To be aware of our place as privileged children of a living God who demands only that we abandon all status and privilege. To be the voice for the voiceless responding to the call of the Spirit One with the harmonious resonance of all creation praising God. To seek Him and to find Him in all things, people, circumstances, and places, unafraid to speak Truth to injustice, to embrace the contradiction of Love clothed in the power of the One who died naked and penniless. To be unattached to any outcome except that which God wills, Leaving behind comfort zones, Releasing the ego into the bosom of the Creator. Rooted in the confident security and the joy of knowing Love beyond words. Unattached to and surrendered to none but that Love. Called together at one table, unity in diversity, one family, working together to realize heaven on earth. Answering the call to serve and to glorify, in all ways, the Love that always finds a way.
