A NOTE FROM DEACON GEORGE...

This past week, we celebrated the feast day of St. Anthony of Padua, the patron saint of St. Anthony's Church in Groton. St. Anthony is an example of someone whose life was guided by God, and whose life took dramatic turns that he never anticipated. St. Anthony was born Fernando Martins de Bulhões in 1195 to a noble family in Lisbon, Portugal. At the age of 15, against his family's wishes, he became a monk and joined the Canons Regular of St. Augustine in Lisbon. Fernando was gifted with an excellent memory, and he gained exceptional knowledge of theology, sacred Scripture and the Church fathers.

Fernando intended to stay an Augustinian, but when he learned of Franciscans who were martyred in Morocco, he decided to become a Franciscan and to preach the gospel to the Moslems of Morocco and give his own life for our Lord. He took the name "Anthony" and left for Morocco, but God had other plans for him. He was stricken with a severe illness in Morocco and was sent back home, and on his return journey, a violent storm drove his ship off course, and he was shipwrecked in Sicily, where he remained until he regained his health. During that time, he met St. Francis of Assisi and was sent to a hermitage near Forli in Northern Italy to spend time in fasting and prayer. One day, Anthony was attending an ordination of Franciscan and Dominican priests at Forli. Once again, Anthony's life took a dramatic turn. When the time came for the sermon, it was discovered that no one had been appointed to preach, and Anthony was chosen, because they knew he could read. They told him to preach whatever the Holy Spirit put into his mouth. In response, he astonished everyone with his preaching and theological knowledge.

From then on, Anthony's career was one of preaching and teaching. Besides preaching, he organized relief for the poor, he worked to end debtors' prisons, and to release prisoners captured in the wars between the Italian city-states. God had led him to his true calling. St. Anthony said: "Actions speak louder than words; let your words teach and your actions speak." So impressive were Anthony's words and works and miracles, that Pope Gregory IX canonized him one year after his death at the age of 36.

St. Anthony's life is an example to us that no matter how many twists and turns our lives can take, God is in charge, and He will guide us on our journey in this world. St. Anthony of Padua, pray for us. That we may be worthy of the promises of Christ.

God Bless,

Deacon George

"This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land...Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come." — Mk 4:26, 28-29

Everyday Stewardship

You could buy a meal for a person who is hungry or for a person who just ate a feast. You could spend time with a lonely person or with someone who has more friends than you. You could step forward to join a parish committee that your experience and knowledge can help, or you can join a ministry where you will constantly struggle to figure out what to do. All of the above actions involve you giving and sharing yourself and your gifts. But not all of these actions will bear good fruit.

If a sower sows seeds only on rocky or weed-infested soil, nothing of great value will grow. But if that same sower plants his seeds in rich soil, then the harvest will one day be great. In all of the soils, the seed is being sown, but it is not the act of sowing that is the most important factor.

In living a stewardship way of life, we must discern how best to share our gifts. Discernment needs the Holy Spirit and a desire to follow God's will, not our own. Our own desires and misconceptions can cause us to use our gifts unwisely. The more mindful we are of how, when, and why we are sharing ourselves, than the greater the impact for God's glory. God wants all of you, but not in a way that is without understanding and discernment. He wants you to shine as a light to the world through your stewardship just as He came to you as the Light of the World in baptism. You can't shine brightly if the match does not hit the wick.
